TBD is one of a select few "dirt to bottle" producers of craft-distilled products in America today. We hand-craft premium spirits from estate-grown corn and locally sourced grains and other ingredients. Mashing, fermenting, distilling and bottling, from start to finish, is done at the farm. Our commitment to the environment embodies solar, geothermal and intensive water recycling processes to preserve the quality of life for all who live on the Chesapeake Bay watershed.

Supporting Farms and the Future of Agriculture

SMADC offers programs, support, and resources for consumers, farmers and landowners. We publish several guides including:

- THE FARM HOLIDAY GUIDE
- THE SOUTHERN MARYLAND MEATS GUIDE
- THE SOUTHERN MARYLAND FARMERS' MARKET GUIDE

SMADC also provides comprehensive training programs including college level courses in agriculture through a partnership with the University of Maryland Institute of Applied Agriculture. As well as grant and loan programs to help expand existing farms and establish new agribusinesses in Southern Maryland.

Please visit SMADC.COM to find out how we can help you. And also visit the new SOUTHERNMARYLANDMEATS.COM to find local farms producing beef, chicken, pork, lamb, and much more.

What is SMADC?

The Southern Maryland Agricultural Development Commission (SMADC) is the division of the Tri-County Council for Southern Maryland that works to enhance the economic viability of agricultural businesses in the five Southern Maryland counties which include: Anne Arundel, Calvert, Charles, Prince George's, and St. Mary's. The Commission was established in 2000 by the Maryland General Assembly to administer the "Tobacco Buyout". SMADC receives funding through the Maryland Cigarette Restitution Fund to provide financial support, business development services, funding for land preservation, marketing assistance and other services to the region's agricultural community.

About the Farm Holiday Guide

This booklet is produced by SMADC to highlight farms in Southern Maryland that offer products and services and hold events during the holidays and winter months. The Southern Maryland Farm Holiday Guide includes only voluntary listings and is not intended to be an endorsement of any particular farm, service or business. This guide and other SMADC guides are also available online at smadc.com.
