

Cottage Food Workshop – Post Test w/answers

1. The website, Cottage Cookies, has the option to ship their cottage food products to Delaware. Is this allowed? No

2. I want to roast and sell coffee, can I also offer ground coffee to my customers? No

3. I can make pickles, beverages, and elderberry syrup as a cottage food business in MD. False

4. The following are allowable cottage foods: True

- Rosemary focaccia with commercially dried herbs baked in;
- Cupcakes with shelf-stable commercially manufactured frosting;
- Hot chocolate cocoa bombs; and
- Chocolate chip cookie stuffed with commercially manufactured peanut butter

5. The following are allowable cottage foods: False

- Lemon cake with a vegan icing made with vegan butter, sugar, lemon juice;
- Cold pressed (unpasteurized) fruit juice;
- Hot Sauce; and
- CBD infused chocolate candies

6. Dehydrating herbs and using them to make a spice blend is allowed under the cottage food regulations. False

7. Does a Cottage Food Business need to include their home address on their label? Yes or an ID # issued by MDH

8. Mary wants to sell her cottage food products at her friend's hair salon and boutique. Is she allowed to do that? No

9. Once I am approved for "At Retail" sales, I can sell my products to any store, as long as it is located within the State of Maryland. False